Welcoming the Year of the Dragon

Lunar New Year, also known as Spring Festival, is the most distinctive and significant traditional festival of the Oriental holidays. To kick-off the celebration: a two-week visual arts Exhibit will begin on January 14 until January 29, 2012 and the celebration will be held on Sunday, January 29, 2012 - between the library and City hall outdoor Courtyard. 2012 is the year of Dragon. On January 29th at 2:00pm a dragon or Lion dance will be performed during the opening ceremony to cast away the cold winter and to meet the vitality of spring and wish for good luck in the coming year.
