

Lunar New Year Celebration!

A Cultural Experience

Tustin Library celebrates Lunar New Year. Also known as the Spring Festival, it is the most distinctive and significant traditional festival of the Asian holidays. It is a time to cast away Winter's cold and welcome the vitality of Spring, wishing good fortune in the coming year.

To kick-off the celebration, a four-week photo exhibit will be held at the Library from January 8th to February 6th, 2011.

The celebration will be held on Sunday, February 6, 2011, in the Library's community room and plaza from 1:30 P.M. – 4:00 P.M.

There's nothing more precious than spending time with family and friends to experience the colorful and festive celebration of the Lunar New Year.

Sunday, February 6th, 1:30 P.M.
Tustin Library
345 East Main Street, Tustin, CA

(If there is rain, all activities will be indoors)

Cultural Activities

Tea culture and ceremony

Environmental Awareness
with CLEO Energy Efficiency (Free gift & Free raffle)

Appreciation of the
"Shang Lin Fu Garden"
painting from the Ming
Dynasty

Lion Dance

Fashion Show, Music, Dance

Kung Fu

Calligraphy Greetings for the New Year

Crafts, Story Time and Fortune Gifts